Pope Francis writes about 'The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity'. He invites us 'to commit ourselves in the everyday events in order to be the leaven of communion, of consolation and of mercy'. Pope Francis explains how these relationships play out in our communities, families, friends, work colleagues, and the like. These are concrete occasions offered to us to build ever more humanly rich relationships, capable of reciprocal respect and selfless love. St John in his Gospel outlines the relationship between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Knowing that he must fulfill the Father's plan through his own death and resurrection, Jesus reassures the disciples that he will not abandon them because his mission will be continued by the Holy Spirit. Jesus explains how the Holy Spirit guides us in understanding many things. The Holy Spirit guides our life situations and helps us to keep our gaze on Jesus while being open to events and to the future. However, the mystery of the Trinity also speaks about us, our relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
